360 Degree Feedback Assessment Training Course

Introduction

Introduction

Companies take 360 Degree feedback from different customers for the products they launch enabling a thorough and varied response across customer base removing the scope of any unwanted biases. While taking a limited perspective might fail the product development strategy, the right, multifaceted inputs can shoot the sales high.

This principle of gathering genuine feedback from multiple people enables professional growth and leadership development that is just and fair.

360 Degree Feedback can help leaders and HR mangers enable employees up to their game and boost productivity.

People capability can be developed by strategically incorporating 360 Degree feedback by engaging with industry experts or by learning the entire process and implementing the same in your organization.

While this tool is great for personal development, it might confuse and hinder the salary negotiation aspect of one’s growth and promotion.

This Xcelerate training course will empower you to implement a more meaningful process to gather 360 Degree Feedback that gives quantifiable data for people to improve their performance and results.
